Dear Mr. Thomas:

As you know we are counsel to Borden and 11/49.

We are hereby responding to your request, via email dated May 18, 2009, regarding the status of the: 1) primary gas, water, sewer and telephone utility service lines and; 2) surrounding public roadways for the respective Projects.

Please note that the Developers have provided, and all primary gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility service lines have been extended in front of, or adjacent to the respective buildings comprising the condominium Projects. Additionally, please note that the gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility infrastructure within the respective condominium Projects have been extended to each residential Unit.

Mr. William Thomas

Instead of sending a formal deficiency, based upon our mutual working together in the last several weeks, this e-mail is being sent to offer the ability to modify the material for the Advisory Opinions. On behalf of the Developer, please provide the following two Statements on your letterhead for each Development :

Hunters View Condominium

All primary gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility service lines have been extended in front of, or adjacent to the building comprising the condominium project and that the gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility infrastructure within the condominium project has been extended to each Unit.

All surrounding public roadways, including the roadways providing access to the condominium are currently complete and open to the public. [Enumerate the roadways].

One Hunters Point Condominium

All primary gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility service lines have been extended in front of, or adjacent to the building comprising the condominium project and that the gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility infrastructure within the condominium project has been extended to each Unit.

All surrounding public roadways, including the roadways providing access to the condominium are currently complete and open to the public. [Enumerate the roadways].

Instead of sending a formal deficiency, based upon our mutual working together in the last several weeks, this e-mail is being sent to offer the ability to modify the material for the Advisory Opinions. On behalf of the Developer, please provide the following two Statements on your letterhead for each Development :

Hunters View Condominium

All primary gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility service lines have been extended in front of, or adjacent to the building comprising the condominium project and that the gas, water, sewer, and telephone utility infrastructure within the condominium project has been extended to each Unit.
